

GENERAL MAYTORENA WILL RESIST LANDING OF MARINES BY UNITED STATES IN MEXICO TO PROTECT AMERICAN SETTLERS FROM YAQUI INDIAN BESIEGERS

THOUSANDS OF SOLDIERS SENT CARRANZA FLITS GERMANS Dissensions and Differences Cause Departure

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Differences between Carranza and Obregon and dissensions in the Carranza cabinet, which caused Carranza's removal of his headquarters to the isolated safety of Fort San Juan de Uloa on Vera Cruz harbor, has brought the Mexican situation to a new focus. Dispatches say that the developments threaten the solidarity of the Carranza movement. The occupation of Mexico City by Carranza troops has been postponed, pending the cabinet reorganization. It is reported that four members of the cabinet have resigned. The president intends to wait several weeks for the situation to shape itself more clearly before taking any definite steps in the policy announced recently.

Mexicans Will Resist

(By Associated Press.)
NOGALES, June 19.—General Maytorena has announced that the entire force he has at command will be used if necessary to resist the landing of American marines from the Colorado on the west coast to protect foreigners in the Yaqui valley from the Indians. A thousand soldiers have been dispatched to the valley, he said, primarily to protect the settlers and their crops from the Indians, but they had orders to resist the landing of the American military forces.

Not for Intervention

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—General Howard, in command of the relief expedition for the American settlers in the Yaqui valley, has instructions to inform the chief of the raiding Indians that the Americans must be permitted to leave. If he finds it necessary to land forces he has wide discretionary powers to do so, but is instructed to take no territory. The Mexican authorities have been so advised. The landing of forces to rescue the colonists will in no sense be an intervention.

Larger Landing Force

(By Associated Press.)
SAN DIEGO, June 19.—The Colorado, which sailed Thursday, should arrive at Guaymas tonight with 300 marines and 500 bluejackets available for shore duty. The Chattanooga, with 200 more available for landing, is due tomorrow.

WOMEN LAWYERS HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY NOW

ABSENCE OF MALE ADVOCATES
IN ENGLAND GIVES THEM
A CHANCE

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 19.—The women lawyers, of whom there are about thirty registered before the Paris bar, have come into their own since the war. The needs of the army have thinned the ranks of their male rivals, and the women lawyers, who formerly were called in only in cases involving women clients, have begun to get a share of the ordinary routine business of the courts.

A number of the women advocates have made a specialty of pleading before courts-martial for soldiers whose leave of absence was overstayed or who have been brought up for some other minor infraction, and the women have proved very successful pleaders in this class of business.

AN INTERESTING CASE IS DECIDED

PLAINTIFF ENTITLED TO JUDGMENT

LITIGATION GROWS OUT OF AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT
YEARS AGO

Judge Averill this morning in the district court handed down a decision in the case of Louis Amundsen, plaintiff, vs. H. T. Kutzkau, defendant. In the first cause of action plaintiff was given judgment without interest and judgment in the second cause of action, together with his costs. It was shown during the trial that the Consolidated Auto company was a partnership consisting of Louis Amundsen, H. T. Kutzkau, and Frank L. Sellstrom; that there were no written articles of partnership, but that each partner furnished his own auto; and that profits, expenses and losses were to be shared equally.

On April 7, 1912, an auto driven by the plaintiff turned over near Spanish Springs in such a manner that it made a complete revolution and returned to its normal position on its wheels, with, however, considerable damage to the machine and its contents. Its five passengers were injured, none of them seriously. Some were taken to Tonopah and some to Manhattan and properly cared for.

On April 20, 1912, the partnership was dissolved probably at the instance of defendant and partly if not wholly as a result of the accident. The defendant testified that he had

INDIGNATION FELT BY DUTCH CAPTAINS

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, June 19.—The Society of Dutch Captains and Mates of the mercantile marine has passed a resolution expressing indignation at the German submarine warfare now being directed against defenseless merchant vessels and non-combatants. The resolution also conveys sympathy to the relatives of all those who perished on the Lusitania.

CHARLES LEVY is up from San Francisco on business. He is not satisfied with the plaintiff as a partner for some time, that he had mentioned this to Sellstrom, and that Sellstrom had communicated it to Amundsen, which Amundsen positively denied. Kutzkau did not communicate his complaint to Amundsen prior to the accident.

The plaintiff asserts that it was agreed among the partners that the expenses arising out of the accident should be shared equally by the partners, but that he was to settle them to the best advantage, and render a report of the amount disbursed by him. This was done, but not until after the dissolution of the partnership as to some of the items; and Sellstrom paid his third. Kutzkau did not pay his third, and this suit was brought to collect it.

BERLIN, June 19.—Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, who acquainted Foreign Minister Jagow and others with the status of public opinion in the United States, will make a similar report to Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg before the actual work is commenced of preparing Germany's reply to the note of the United States regarding submarine warfare. While the Meyer-Gerhard visit to the kaiser is undecided, the chief value of his report to the officials as to the present attitude of the president's advisers is in a more positive and convincing form than could have been possible with written communications. It is understood that he made it clear that the Americans are standing solidly behind the president in his insistence on guarantees against a repetition of the case of the Lusitania.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 19.—France is in excellent health. None of the epidemics dreaded with the coming of hot weather have developed. There were 849 deaths in Paris last week as against 919 the preceding week and 842 the average for this season of the year. Typhoid fever, the most dreaded of all diseases, made only three victims. Reports from points where soldiers are concentrated and where there were a great many cases during the winter show that the epidemic is abating.

County Treasurer Franklin has turned over the tax books for the first half of 1914. Today he will complete his estimate of the money due the state from this source. It will amount to $30,038.07. The delinquent list is the lowest in the history of Nye county, amounting to $187.76. There are only twenty items.

Two companies paid their taxes under protest, the total amount being about $6500. They are the Nevada-California Power and the Nevada Telegraph and Telephone company. Each has a suit pending against the Nevada tax commission for reduction in valuation.

A warrant for the state's portion of the tax money was drawn today by County Auditor Grimes.

MAY MAKE A NEW STATE INDUSTRY

The famous sand mountain at Sand Springs, one of the natural wonders of the state, is again the object of investigation by parties who are interested in making practical use of this almost inexhaustible supply of silicious material in the manufacture of glass. It has been repeatedly tested for this purpose and has been pronounced one of the largest and purest deposits of this character in the United States.

One of the peculiarities of the huge mass is that it is constantly in motion, hence the name Sand Springs-Fallon Standard.

VAST TERRITORY Italy Takes More Land Than She Agreed To Accept

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, June 19.—The Italian invasion of Austria is said by the newspapers to have resulted thus far in the occupation of more than twice as much territory as was offered by Austria as the price of Italy's neutrality. The Austrian fortress at Malborgeth is being demolished, according to reports from the front. Malborgeth is twenty miles from Villach. Along the Isonzo the battle is assuming larger proportions. Austria has sent reinforcements of her finest troops. Raids by Italian seaplanes and dirigibles have damaged Austria's fortifications and railroads on the Isonzo front.

CABINET CHANGE NOT EVEN FELT

BRITISH ADMIRALTY IS ELASTIC

TO WINSTON CHURCHILL IS DUE
THE CREDIT FOR THIS CONDITION

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 19.—No department of state has such an elastic organization as the British admiralty, which did not even feel the recent cabinet change. For this result it can thank Winston Churchill, since it was he who introduced the naval staff feature, which stands behind the first sea lord. The staff is the admiralty's thinking machine and provides ideas and information for whoever may be in charge at the time. It was created three years ago.

No executive power is allowed the war staff, which is purely advisory. The subjects dealt with cover naval operations, intelligence and mobilization. The head of the staff, obviously, should be a student of naval warfare and an authority on questions of strategy. He is empowered to sit with the first lord of the admiralty and the first sea lord at the meetings of the imperial defense committee.

When first organized, Churchill foresaw it would suffer from a lack of officers trained for staff duties. This lack was supplied by giving the most brilliant of the young officers a special course of training at the naval war college. Admiral Sir Henry Jackson, who, as president of the college, put the scheme into operation, was later taken by Admiral Sir Doveton the war staff. Although his place was later taken by Admiral Sir Doveton Sturdee, he remains at the admiralty on special service.
